Institute for International Policy and Economy

1. The Institute is attached to the Yugoslav State Secretariat for Foreign Affairs in Belgrade. It was established toward the end of 1947 by Edvard Kardelj, after his return from Moscow, according to the pattern of a similar Russian Institute then under the Soviet academician Eugene Varga. The Yugoslav Institute is in charge of collecting and analyzing events and research in the fields of politics and economics of foreign countries for the use of the State Secretariat for Foreign Affairs and other Yugoslav institutions dealing with foreign countries. Its offices are located on Poincare Street in the former building of the Chamber of Industry. It is significant to note that the Central Committee of the Federation of Yugoslav Communists (FCY) has the authority to propose individuals for the post of manager of the Institute. Since 1947 the following persons have held this post:
 - a. Dr. Milan Bartos - former professor at Belgrade University, presently Minister Plenipotentiary and professor of the Party School in Belgrade;
 - b. Labud Kusovac;
 - c. Sokolov,(fnu);
 - d. Radomir Davidovic - nicknamed "Kepa", who is presently a manager of the Political and Economic School in Belgrade;
 - e. Vinko Winterhalter;¹
